

The following photos are from the Quad City Section's Awards Meeting held on March 22, 2011.

2011 Young Member of the Year Eric Viall, 2011 Member of the Year Walt Roll and 2011 Outstanding Engineering Achievement recipient Jay Olson.

40 year member Lyle Stephens, 50 year member Philip Kester and 60 year members Jim Graham and Francis Brinkmeyer. Not present were 40 year member Orlin Johnson and 60 year members Don Hartwig, Roy Harrington and Tom Wilkinson.

Patent recipients Jim Shoemaker, Bernie Romig, Carl Silbernagel and Joe Tejido.

2010-2011 Officers: Will Corman and Lindsay Hodnefield (Nominating Committee), Jim Shoemaker (Treasurer), Anne Ryerson (Chair-Elect), Eric Windeknecht (Past Chair), Mehari Tekeste (Secretary) and Joel Werling (Chair). Not present: Greg Long (Nominating Committee).

2010-11 Member Service representatives: Eric Viall (Program), Mehari Tekeste (Continuing Education), Eric Windeknecht (QCESC Liaison), Dave Smith (Awards and Newsletter), Joel Werling (Program and Continuing Education) and Will Corman (Membership). Not present: Cody Freehill (Scholarships), Clifford Pim (Suppliers Coordinator), Marilyn Dumolien (Communications), Brad Yanke (Great Lakes Conference Liaison) and Kent Brown (Young Professionals).

2011-12 Officer Candidates: Will Corman (Chair-Elect), Lindsay Hodnefield (Nominating Committee), Jim Shoemaker (Treasurer), Anne Ryerson (Chair, previously elected) and Joel Werling (Past Chair, previously elected). Not present: candidate Kevin Kohls (Secretary) and Nominating Committee candidates Greg Long and Stephen Corban. The Section thanks all these individuals for their willingness to serve.

Anna Oldani receives one of the Section's 2011 Scholarships from Chair Joel Werling.

Tech Session speakers Marion Calmer and Tim Mohs.