Quad City Engineering and Science Council (QCESC)

1. Introduction of members/guests:

Pat Barnes introduced members and guests and provided all with hard copies of meeting agenda.

2. Minutes of previous meeting.

The minutes of the previous meeting were approved without change.

3. Treasurer's Report. Chris Hebel, Council Treasurer, was unable to attend but provided the following information:

- a. Battle of the Bridges expenses were $240,
- b. $500 has been added to the Council's Scholarship Fund
- c. $645 was raised at the E-Week Banquet silent auction
- d. Council funds are $6,203.00. (Details will be reviewed at the August meeting.)

4. Brief Introduction – New Western Illinois University Engineering Director

Pat introduced Dr. Bill Pratt, the new Engineering Director at Western Illinois University along with Bill Jorgesen. Dr. Pratt provided his professional background and stated that he “needs to pulse his constituents (the QCESC).” He stated that we need to be able to know the answer to the question “... what is to be expected of an apprentice engineer”? He said that the state of Utah (his previous employer) is about 1,200 engineers short of its needs. He talked about a program in Utah called “Fresh Brain.” He stated that WIU is about 85% successful in retaining its engineering enrollees.

5. Rest of Meeting Was Spent Reviewing a PowerPoint with a shortcut to the document below. Key areas of discussion were:

- a. Review Student/STEM Related Activities – Steve Mapley/Pat
- b. Society Updates
- c. QCESC Year in Review
- d. Action Items Targeted for Next 60 Days
